Woman's Day is Australia's highest selling weekly magazine and the authority when it comes to all things royal and celebrity – both Hollywood and Aussie stars alike. Reaching close to one million women around the country each week, it is a household name and has become the go-to not only for celebrity gossip, but for all things fashion, food, health and beauty, too. While our everyday recipes, lifestyles tips and real life stories are inspirational and accessible for our readers, our ability to bring Aussie women closer to the stars they love provides them with the perfect escape from everyday life.

A note from the Editor

With something for everyone, it's become part of a very special weekly ritual for so many Aussies, passed on and shared between mothers, grandmothers, daughters, neighbours and friends. With stories to inspire, entertain and inform, it's perfect paired with a cup of tea and a biscuit for that much-needed 'me' time we all crave."

REBUILD OUR TOWNS

In January 2020, as the country was brought to its knees by devastating summer bushfires, Woman's Day launched Rebuild Our Towns, a practical campaign focused on the rebuilding of our local communities ravaged by fire. The message was simple – practical help doesn't have to cost a fortune, but it does take many hands to bring a community back to life. Each week, we focused on a different town around the country and the practical ways in which we can continue to support them as they pick up the pieces and start their lives over.
